

Looking Everywhere

Sharon Rutherford

1. Blue skies, white clouds, Seems to be some - thing in my eyes, 'Cause I'm look - ing e - very - where for You.

2. My heart is cold, my eyes are dry, Your world hard - ly seems a - live, And I'm look - ing e - vry - where for You.

3. Re - mem - be - ring days gone by, When You seemed right by my side, Now I'm loo - king eve - ry - where for You.

4. Re - a - li - ty doe - sn't seem to be, Your king - dom in - side of me, And I'm loo - king e - very - where for You.

5. I lay a - wake, sleep - less nights, Thin - king thoughts and clim - bing heights, Loo - king e - very - where for You.

6. Can it be though I can - not see, That You are still in - side of me, While I'm loo - king e - very - where for You?

7. I cry out, I hear You say, I've pro - mised I'll ne - ver go a - way, You don't have to look e - very - where for Me.

8. I'm here with you, you're part of Me, That's the way it will a - lways be, Stop loo - king e - very - where for Me.

Stop loo - king e - very - where for Me.
